Larry Adams Given Appointment As Acting City Administrator

Introducing Joe Grippi Fire Department Engineer

JOE GRIPPI

Out in back of the residence of Joseph S. Grippi at 51 N. Mt. Trail, a stroller might be startled to glimpse the bright red of a fire engine parked, cozy as a family VW or bike. But the neighbors take this quietly for granted, much as they might if grown accustomed to a friend having a tame lion out back, or a St. Bernard — as if they shrugged shoulders and accepted the different friends have different loves and hobbies. For Mr. Grippi, Fire Engineer of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department, who has lived in Sierra Madre for 43 years, has spent 22 of those years as volunteer fireman.

Engineer Grippi, also an engineer in his business life, has collected the 20-year gold badge and dinner which is about the only formal recognition awarded our volunteer firemen. He is also the fire department's treasurer and fine collector. Fine collecting up at the firemen's quarters is a "fine" art, as practiced by the volunteers, and a not insignificant means of raising funds for the charitable work for children which has been a practice of the department since its inception. Originally fines were levied on a man if he let slip a cuss word during a meeting, and so the repository of fines was called a "cuss can" and naturally some early wit turned up with an old-fashioned

Chamber of Commerce To Hold Line On Dues

At the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board members, held August 2, five guests were present: Councilman Jan Maddox, Mrs. Connie Harriman of Sierra Madre Glass, Wayne Woodruff of Cyc's, Jerry Lipes, Bank of America, and Barney Yunk, realtor, in addition to Gordon Baker Lloyd, of the Associates firm bearing his name. Mr. Lloyd, as chairman of the committee on the creche-bus shelter project for Kersting Court reported on his presentation of this matter to the Parks and Recreation Commission, which approved the idea, pending further details. It has been estimated that the cost would be $440.13 if the shelter is built by volunteers, or an additional $312.72 if paid labor is used. Mr. Lloyd's helpfulness on this matter, though not a member of the Chamber, highlighted the report on a study of dues structures for the C of C in neighboring communities, and it has been decided that though the fee of $25 for membership will continue in effect for the present, an associate membership at $10 annually should be put into effect, and that perhaps for larger companies, solici-

UROC Hosts R. Reagan In August

Highlight of the quarterly State Board of Governors meeting of United Republicans of California (UROC) in August will be an address by Ronald Reagan, Republican candidate for Governor. The announcement was made this week by Joe Crosby, state chairman of the grass-roots Republican organization. Reagan, endorsed by UROC prior to the June primaries, will speak Saturday night, Aug. 13, at 7 o'clock at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica where the three-day meeting (Aug. 12-14) is being held. He is expected to make a forceful bid for Republicans and Democrats to elect him to the Governor's office in November.

The board meeting will be hosted by the four Area Governors of Los Angeles County under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Alice Madden of Redondo Beach. Among those planning to attend from Sierra Madre Unit No. 58 will be the president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Cruner, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Johnson.

City Administrator Bevington, May 10, 1966, tendered his resignation to the City of Sierra Madre as City Administrator effective on a full time basis as of June 10, and thereafter on a part time basis until August 15. Having completed his schedule for full time, then to three days a week, on two days a week it, is now his desire to sever connections as planned and give his full time to his new association.

With pressure from the budget, the City Council has not had sufficient time to process the some 62 applications for the position of City Administrator, and now find that many facets of the City Government is going unattended due to the short working weeks of Mr. Bevington.

It was the decision of the City Council that Larry Adams, Assistant Engineer, would be raised from the ranks and serve as Acting Administrator at an increase of salary of $150 per month over his present rating until such time as selection of a full time Administrator be secured.

Your Duty When Fire Is Noted Or In Progress

Ed's Note: This is part of a continuing series, published by the News, as a public service.

by Gordon Baker Lloyd Every 60 seconds across our country a home catches fire. Last year we lost 12,000 friends and neighbors due to fire, with over one billion, seven hundred and sixty millions lost in fires. We have been talking about fire prevention in our town and what you can do about it. Let's mention a few things you can do right at the time of a fire.

Know your fire number: Have it pasted on the phone with the police department number. If you are at a phone or do not have a number, dial "0" then say "Emergency Fire" and give the name of your town. That's all. She will take it from there to the fire department. Then you can give the address.

Be sure the fire has been reported. The other day here in town a fire was seen and no one reported it for several minutes thinking that someone had reported it. Never take this for granted — your own fire or a neighbor's. Report it for sure. Get help on the way — then take care of the fire.

Hear the siren and get out of the way: Get to the side of the road at once whether the fire truck is coming towards you or overtaking you. Don't get confused. Move at once. If you are in heavy traffic move over and out of the way QUICK! Here in town more than once I have seen people merely move a foot or so when a siren blew. Sirens are for emergencies only — police, ambulance, fire department. Don't impede their progress. Some day it may be your emergency and then what?

At the scene: Keep back. We have stressed that before — but how important — Please turn to Page 2

Staged Rescue Held Saturday

Two members of the new Junior Mountaineers group of Sierra Madre joined last Saturday with members of the city's famed Search and Rescue Team to put on a good show featuring the duty performances techniques of the team's bloodhounds. The occasion was the filming by Wolpart Productions of these dogs to be used as a segment of a one-hour program called "It's a Dog's Life," which will be shown on NBC the day after Thanksgiving, and Junior Mountaineers who lent both scent and presence to the location shooting as "lost" boys were Ken Anderson, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rae Anderson of 288 Churchill Road, and Tom Albertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albertson, 470 E. Montecito, both students at PHS.

Details of the staged rescue took from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m., with most members of the Search and Rescue Team participating, plus the U.S. Forestry Dept. and the helicopter belonging to the L.A. County Fire Department and its crew; in addition, of

New Ruling On School Bus Transit

According to Dr. Edgar C. Egley, Assistant Superintendent of Schools for Business in the Pasadena Unified School District, the details of just what transportation will be available for junior and high school students living in Sierra Madre are in process of being worked out and will be released for publication as soon as completed.

Parents of former students will be notified if no longer eligible and bus routes for students, new or old, who are entitled to transportation passes will be ready, it is hoped, by Sept. 1. The move to cut bus services, and lengthening walking distances, which will set all Sierra Madre elementary school pupils to walking or being family driven this year, is part of the Board of Education's economy drive and results from study by a committee of transportation services costs in comparable communities which

Because Mayor Frank Parks needed more time for checking the figures and transfers suggested by the Capital Improvements Committee, and because of a planned Scout hike by Councilman Wagner, the setting of the tax levy rate for the year '66-67 was postponed until the regular meeting of the Council on August 23.

After clarification of several reclassifications in employment, the meeting was turned over to the budget, and by introduction, City Administrator Bevington made the following remarks: "I have applied the figures of expenditures recommended by the Council and state that the budget is now within the finances available to the city." Now the Council was ready to apply the expenditures to the revenue and designate the funding and set the tax rate.

The Capital Improvement Committee was ready with detailed reports as to how they recommended the "transfer" of several funds into and out of the General Fund.

Definite disapproval was voiced by Vice Mayor King and Councilman Sorensen on transfers from the Sales Tax or Contingency Fund,

Jail To Be Condemned

The Los Angeles County Grand Jury Jail Committee members took another look at the Sierra Madre jail facilities, and shook their heads in dismay.

For the past ten years members of the Jury have inspected Sierra Madre and have given an adverse report each year. According to them it fails to meet standard requirements in all respects.

I have watched the slow and methodical progress of the proposed permanent Cheche for Kersting Square and have felt ever since it was first mentioned last December that this project is a must for our community before the next Christmas and rainy season rolls around.

For four years I have watched its construction the forefront of December and its dismantling in January. I have marveled at the stamina and the desire of a few to keep this tradition alive, to take the pieces and fit them together each year, and each year find them deteriorating just a little from the previous year.

When I first came to Sierra Madre in 1962, my first exposure to the Cheche was watching Mrs. Leila M. Roberts and her staff of employees, dedicate one of their December Sundays to its construction. Upon inquiry I found that she first planned and promoted the Cheche, and had taken care of its construction and the maintenance of its personnel throughout the years.

Although I did not know the gentleman, a man seemed to appear on the scene shortly after its construction and apply the finishing touches — such as snow and the setting of the scene. This man was Gordon Baker Lloyd.

When increased business activities and the lack of time moved in against Mrs. Roberts and her staff in the past couple of years, Gordon doggedly continued the effort, but the past year it was found that something of a permanent nature was more desirable, as the tearing down and rebuilding every year was becoming a gigantic chore.

With the permanency being born as an idea, it was further exploited by the fact that a permanent Cheche could be built that would take of the Christmas activities and could for the next ten and a half months be used as a shelter for those who were waiting for bus transportation.

Equipped with benches, passengers could wait in out of the rain and sun, and it would so be built that it would not be in darkness and prone to augment vandalism, or used for undesirable purposes.

Sierra Madre is one of the last known cities that sponsor the "Christ Scene," and it is visited by thousands throughout the Christmas and Holiday season. To us this is a must for the future.

The plans have been drawn, and are at the present time in the position of being presented to various city commissions and council for acceptance. The proposed drawings were printed in the last issue of the News, and the cost of the permanent structure was $712.85, which included ma-

Your Duty When Fire Is Noted

It is in order to get in portable equipment and the truck itself. Get out of the way. And especially is this important now with the kids out of school. Sure, this is a big thrill for them to see the trucks and the operation — but train them to realize this is something here besides sightseeing. At a fire last week I took pictures of over 40 kids crowding around getting in the way with no parents telling them what to do. Now if some freak accident had happened — hose broke, wall fell, explosion took place, who would you blame and try to sue?

If you are in the fire: How about playing a game called "night escape" . . . Don't think this is silly. It's merely a plan to get ready "in case of," especially if you have a two-story home. When Sassy and I are on the road, which is about half our time, I always check with her the nearest fire escape and what we would do in case of fire. This takes but a moment, but so important. Did you know that 33.5 per cent of fires take place from midnight till 6 a.m.? We are talking about fatal fires. Eighty per cent of all fire victims are overcome by smoke and heat and are never touched by fire. So — plan what to do.

Figure out where you will go in case of fire. Don't panic. This is easy to say, but so important. If you have things planned ahead of time less panic will take place. Here are some things to remember. Don't jump from an upper floor. If you are caught upstairs in a bedroom, close the door and stuff the cracks with bedding. Open the window a little at the top and at the bottom to give ventilation. Hang out a cloth — hang out a blanket, skirt or dress to attract attention of the firemen. They will do the rest. If you feel you must go downstairs be sure to feel your door. If it is hot stay where you are. Smoke is much more dangerous than you realize. Smoke and heat — which travels up a stair well or in a hall with draft can put you "out" in seconds and then there is no further chance for your recovery.

Next week: Where most fires start.

HIGH SCHOOL ALL STAR GAME THURS. NIGHT

THE FIRST San Gabriel Valley All-Star clash is on tap Thursday night at Citrus Stadium with Tom Hamilton's West eleven facing an East aggregation coached by Leonard Cohn of Claremont.

AN AERIAL DUAL is expected with All-CIFer Steve Jones on the firing line for the Easterners and St. Francis whiz, Jim Nader, sharing QB duties with Monrovia's Dave Holman for the West. All three are much better than average tossers and it has been the experience in games of this type that a pigskin floating through the air has a better chance of ultimately being escorted into the end zone than any other method of offense.

BOTH TEAMS HAVE excellent receivers. Cohn can call upon Upland's Jim Smith, who just happens to be the CIF 100 and 220 sprint champ and La Puente's George Farmer, the CIF low hurdle winner. La Canada's Dick DeGrey and Gary James, the St. Francis flash, are the cream of the Western receivers.

NATURALLY THE RUNNING game will be utilized for more than diversification. With such leather packers on hand as Claremont's Jerry Shaw and speedy Bob Kipper of Pomona Catholic and Muir's Willie Campbell, big Bob Brown of Temple City and Skip Robinson from PHS, the defenses will have to stay on their toes.

TOM VERTI (St. Francis), Jim Garland and Rick Platter of PHS and Pacific League player of the year, George Gruber of Glendale Hoover, head the defensive forces of the West. Glendale's Steve Madsen, and 235 pound Jim Sena of Ganesha key to the East defense.

KICKOFF FOR THIS FIRST ANNUAL San Gabriel Valley charity contest is slated for 8 p.m. Proceeds from the tilt will go to the Orthopaedic Hospital of Los Angeles and the Glendora Welfare Association.

THE HALFTIME SHOW will include a performance by Jerry Todd's PCC gymnasts and a demonstration of a helicopter rescue by the San Dimas Mountain Rescue Team. Pretty queen, Kam Nelson, will also be on hand.

NOTES AND STUFF . . . THE RAMS displayed a lot of fire and rock 'em sock 'em type defense under new coach George Allen. Bill George and Maxie Baughan, a pair of hard-bitten linebackers, appear to have the winning touch and leadership that should make the Rams tough to score against.

OTHER THOUGHTS that were culled from their 16-6 win over the Cleveland Browns . . . The Browns will have a rugged season if Jim Brown does not sign . . . Rosey Grier seems to be slowing just a notch but David Jones and Merlin Olsen are as forceful as ever . . . Clancy Williams and Iv Cross form about as good a pair of defensive halfbacks that you will find in the league.

THE RAMS will definitely have to put some oomph in the running game. Tom Moore looked good in spots and of course Dick Bass didn't play. Les Josephson and Jim Stiger run hard but seldom make much yardage . . . It's fun to watch Tommy McDonald bounce up

Miss Ellen Clark, Stephen Haymond Exchange Marriage Vows, July 30

MRS. STEPHEN M. HAYMOND
nee . . . Miss Ellen Clark

Miss Ellen Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rebel Clark of 524 S. Belmont, Glendale, was married Saturday, July 30, to Stephen M. Haymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Haymond of 210 W. Garfield, Glendale, at the Chapel of Roses in Pasadena. A reception followed at the chapel for about 100 guests.

Mrs. Barbara Rieland was matron of honor and Miss Carol Anthony was bridesmaid. Stuart Lambach was best man and the ushers were Mike Clark, Bud Viellenave and David Clark. Marsha Clark, sister of the bride, was flower girl and Vincent Viellenave, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta with a bodice of lace over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white carnations and stephanotis. Her attendants wore floor-length shrimp and pink brocade gowns in empire line with flowing panels of pink chiffon down the back. They carried carnations, sprayed a matching shrimp tone.

The soloist, James Witt, sang The Lord's Prayer and How Do I Love Thee at the lovely evening service.

The bride attended Pasadena High School, Hoover High School and Glendale College. The bridegroom attended John Marshall Junior High School, Glendale High School and Glendale College.

The young people spent their honeymoon in Northridge, California and are now living at 215 N. Adams, Glendale.

Good Showing By SM Tennis Team

On Saturday, July 30, the Sierra Madre team met the Monterey Park representatives on the tennis courts of Mark Keppel High School. Girls 14, and boys 12, 14 and 16 events were played. Barbara Marshall and Vicki Wittig (who are playing in the 14 and under instead of the 12 and under, because of a shortage in this age category) did quite well in winning both singles matches.

The Van Sielen brothers (Bill and John) won both singles and doubles to sweep the 12 and under division. Jim Cowen won in singles play and then teamed with Robert Cowan to win in tandem competition. In total points, Monterey Park edged us out by a score of 7 to 6.

Just a week earlier, the Sierra Madre team playing a home match on the Monrovia High School courts because the two local courts are not sufficient for league play, was able to tie a team from South Pasadena. Only 12 and 14 boys matches were played since So. Pasadena has just entered league play this year and has not had time to build up all age categories.

Paul Copeland (son of John Q.) and Bob Cowen were successful in doubles play and the Van Sielens swept both singles and doubles.

On August 13, the last encounter of the season, pits Sierra Madre against the really strong team of the valley, the representatives from San Gabriel.

If you have a chance to support the boys and girls by your presence, the scene will be Monrovia High School starting at 9 a.m.

George and Trudy Amthor of Barhite are glowing in the wake of their recent vacation. They took Georganne, Trudy, Grant and Gil down to the Leo Carrillo Ranch in Santa Monica Canyon. As you might be aware, it has been dedicated as a park and is being preserved in its original rustic state.

It is a beautiful wooded area set deep in the canyon with traces of a stream dividing the property. There are more than adequate places provided for trailer camping and for those that want both the beach and the mountains, it is within walking distance of the ocean. The Amthors were camping with their new trailer, and as Trudy put it, "it has all built in facilities." That's the way I like to rough it.

We had a delightful evening last week with the J. Arturo Gutierrez family. They had a dinner party in order that their daughter, Sister Gracia Marie, could visit with some of her old friends before her transfer to Fresno. She is in the order of St. Joseph of Corondelet. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. John Eppard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klingerman, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ascencio, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gutierrez, Mr. and Mrs. John DeLaney, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeLaney, Mrs. George Floritis and all the Gutierrez children and grandchildren.

Those unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Rene F. Guidi, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Majlich, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Paquette.

The William Blakleys of Edgely Lane are home again after almost a week of tent camping at Twin Lakes in Mammoth Falls. They took their two boys, Tom and Stephen, and a young friend, Bob Ogles. The idea was that Bill was going to teach the boys how to "Fly Fish" . . . I don't know how well they did but Ann said at no time did they ever have too much fish.

They all had a wonderful time trying, however. They bathed in the mineral springs, and other than rain every noon and at dinner time, the weather was almost perfect.

Just prior to their departure Stephen celebrated his ninth birthday with a miniature golfing party. He invited Ward Olson, Stephen Baugh and Bobby Everhart. After the afternoon on the course they came back to finish off with barbecued hamburgers. From there on Dad took over for a father-son evening and took Stephen to the Dodger game.

he has been attending the University of the Americas. As a result there has been quite a bit of entertaining going on for his friends.

One weekend the LeBarons entertained some old friends from England who stopped here before going on to the middle west. They were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ryerson and their daughter Susan air son Eric. Mr. Ryerson has accepted a college position in the middle west.

The most exciting activity the LeBarons have had this summer is their "theater going." They have been dashing all over Southern California attending different summer theater programs. They have included the Summer Festival at Occidental College which they report is outstanding, the Huntington Hartford Theater Group, the UCLA Summer Theater, the Shakespeare Globe Theater in San Diego, and the Cal State College Productions.

They decided early in the spring that this would be a project that would be mutually enjoyable for a different summer activity and unlike most people, they followed through on their plans for a very rewarding and entertaining vacation.

News from aboard — Mrs. Joe (Amy) Philipson has been cruising all over the continent with her two youngest children, Robert and Jean. They are finally settled down in a little beach house in Sittes, Spain, which is very near Barcelona. However, they arrived at their destination by means of a very circuitous route which started in Paris, then on to Lisbon in Portugal. They decided it might be real fun to drive to Barcelona and Gibraltar, so they rented a car and as long as they were so close it seemed like even a better idea to go over to Tangiers in Africa for a few hours. They did. They got the fast boat, had a delightful lunch enroute, shopped for a few hours and returned. They plan to spend the remaining time till September first in Sittes, but I personally have my doubts, I'm sure they'll squeeze in a few more exciting side trips and then there are those that say home and talk about it.

"Let's Talk Dry Cleaning"

by Joseph Delgatto Sr. There's not much that's more annoying than to take an otherwise clean garment from the hanger and discover a spot on it after just one wearing. "Where did it come from?" you ask. "Is it a food stain? Beverage? Perfume?" You have no way of telling.

When this happens, it's wise to get the garment to your cleaner as quickly as possible. While some stains are irremovable, most of them do come out with proper cleaning. Food stains, stains from tea, coffee, soft drinks and fruit juices, should be scientifically removed quickly, before they become oxidized by exposure to air and heat.

Dye stains are usually the most difficult to remove from dark and pastel fabrics. White fabrics yield to bleaches which can usually remove the dye stain. Oil stains come out easily when fresh, yet they are often impossible to remove completely after they have aged for a time.

A word of warning: never try to remove an unidentified stain by home cleaning agents. You might come up with a ruined garment! Proper cleaning by specialists costs less in the long run, makes your clothes last longer.

Blanket Special — $1.60 Value cleaned for $1.00.

Lynn-Schlote Wedding Vows Recited At Congregational Church August 5

MRS. WILLIAM ERICH SCHLOTE
nee ... Miss Lynn-Marie Golden

Miss Lynn-Marie Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Golden of 431 E. Grand View, was given in marriage by her father to William Erich Schlote of Monrovia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Schlote of San Antonio, Texas, on Friday, Aug. 5. The Rev. Glen McCormick officiated the evening ceremony at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church.

Mrs. Hershel Whitley was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Ann Heasley, Miss Diana Gordon, Miss Joan Cameron, Miss Pamela Duke and Miss Judy Emerson. Bruce Howell was best man, and ushers were Gordon Schlote, Hershel Whitley, Brad Quick, Calvin Bunn and Norman Leake. Miss Janet Leake was flower girl and Kurt Reighard was ring bearer.

The bride wore a simple pure white peau de soie floor-length gown, featuring a fitted bodice with intricate soft pleats falling from the waistline into a long train. She wore pearls at the neckline and a floor-length off-the-face mantilla veil of illusion tulle and edged in wide French imported re-embroidered Alton lace in the chrysanthemum motif. She carried a cascade of white spider mums and white roses.

The bride's attendants wore ice blue peau de soie floor-length dresses with a fitted empire waist and A-line skirts. Their head-dresses were shoulder-length replicas of the bride's veil of matching blue tulle and re-embroidered Chantilly lace trim. They carried their gifts from the bride, small white Bibles bedecked with blue and white carnations. The flower girl wore an ice blue peau de soie dress trimmed with embroidered white daisies. Her head-dress was a milkmaid's scarf of blue tulle with scattered white daisies. The bridegroom was in a white dinner jacket and the groomsmen wore ice blue dinner jackets.

The mother of the bride wore a blue and silver brocade sheath and the mother of the bridegroom wore a pink brocade suit. The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. John Golden of Sierra Madre, wore a blue nylon lace dress and the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Leake of Los Angeles, wore a mauve-pink Chantilly lace dress.

The reception, held in Pritchard Hall at the church for some 200 guests, was especially lovely with the punch table graced by a large sculptured ice swan centerpiece, created by her father, Miss Ann Edens of Pasadena was the guest book attendant.

Out-of-state relatives in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Schlote of San Antonio, Texas, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Hayes of Dallas, Texas, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. Gordon Schlote of Douglas, Ariz., brother of the bridegroom. Also, Mrs. Sallee Martin of Bald Knob, Ark., cousin of the bride, and Mr. Harry Hickman of Plattsburg, Mo., great-grand-uncle of the bride. Others coming from a great distance were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dunn and family of GEORGE PARR, owner of the Jewelers Workshop, places one of his custom-designed rings on the finger of Mrs. Ron Griffin. In this outstanding commission were three rings creating a very distinctive setting. Parr recently designed the rings for Farouk Ahmad Mohajid, son of th minister of Saudi Arabia and his bride-to-be Miss Tamara Eliot, International dancer. At the top left is the ring designed for Mrs. Griffin.

George Parr, Custom Jewelry Designer Pleases Sierra Madre Couple

When Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Griffin, better known to the community as Ron and Barbara, were married two years ago, they chose a modern ring, a wide band of gold with a Florentine finish, but they both felt sentimental about the cherished possession of Ron's grandfather's wedding ring, a narrow, plain gold, old-fashioned band, and Mrs. Griffin liked to wear it, too. In addition, she had some pieces of heirloom family jewelry with tiny diamonds and began to wish these could be reset.

So, Ron gifted her with a diamond for her birthday several months ago, plus the super present of a custom designed ring from the artist fingers of George Parr which would combine all these elements into one. Now Mrs. Griffin asserts that no possession she owns or could have in future would ever give her greater joy than this creation, despite the fact that it has made her subject to constant compliment and interrogation from complete strangers at stores and markets. Not the worst trial in the world!

The new ring combines three, the last one enclor-ling the finger and then extending into a graceful scroll containing the small family diamonds, which embraces the other two and unites them before it blossoms into the lively sparkle of the larger new diamond. Like all his original designs, Parr made this ring by the "lost wax" process necessary for a single copy of an original complex concept, since no stamping process could cope with the inter-folds, weavings and under-cuttings of an intricate design.

This is a process older than the written history of jewelry making, exemplified in museum pieces such as those from the early days of Egypt.

Historical, too, is the "Florentine" finish of the middle band of this ring, their original wedding band. This finish has "texture," a multitude of tiny marks, individually made by a line graver, and the result mutes the brightness of the metal with a soft patina reminiscent of that acquired by table sterling after long use.

It seems likely that this finish was first chosen not only for its richness and the costliness of the hand work required, but because it blended with the jewel and embroidery encrusted fabrics used in Florence in Medici days, now popular with Paris couturiers for this coming season.

Mr. Parr has been accused of having a consciousness of high fashion acquired from his wife Shirley, who in addition to being a serious painter has been on the staff of Bullocks in Los Angeles as fashion designer and artist. He freely admits that he is fortunate to be exposed to her awareness, and waves a hand at the interior of his shop, "The Golden Hand," or Jewelers Workshop, on Sierra Madre Boulevard, which was designed and decorated by his wife, whose paintings are displayed there in addition to a whole gallery of Parr creations.

Since it was Ron Griffin and his family company which carried out the Parr's plans into the unique shop which has upgraded the whole retail block it seems only fitting that Parr in turn should have so successfully and beautifully fulfilled the Ron Griffins' wishes and feelings in the ring he designed and created.

has a devoted following at Continental Hair Fashions, for he is a skilled artist in every phase of hair styling. For over 10 years chic women of this area have been depending on the expertise of Albert to keep them looking their loveliest.

Mr. Albert created this charming coiffure, which is young and fresh in mood, yet flattering to a wide range of ages. To achieve it, the hair was cut short in the back, slightly longer on top, and arranged to look smooth and almost sleek for daytime occasions. For a more formal mood, the hair is lifted and flaired, with a soft cascade of curls at the crown of the head. A body permanent provides the texture required for proper control, and the hairdo may be further dramatized by tipping or frosting to highlight the natural hair coloring. Adaptable for any age or occasion, this Albert creation is versatile indeed.

Budget conscious citizens who may have spotted quite a crew busily painting the Toy Loan Cottage should be reminded that all this work is for free, a particular gift of labor from Kiwanis Club members. Carl Griffin even kept going despite two broken ribs. And Irene Jackson and her cohorts were pitching in to help Helen Peterson make new shelf order for newly clean toys, with the Toy Soldiers taking surprisingly joy in their various tasks, and pride in doing them well. Mrs. Peterson did get to Fresno for a visit to her father, and the Jacksons spent some time at Santa Barbara. Watch for the official opening of the new Toy Loan building.

that the new assessed valuation for the City of Sierra Madre had been received from the County Department of Auditor-Controller and had been set at $23,168,000 which is some $118,000 above the City Administrator's estimate for the preliminary budget.

Bids
Authorization to take bids was given for the relocation of the emergency generator, which was tentatively priced at $3000. Also bids were authorized for the new Fire Truck for the City of Sierra Madre, which would take some 18 months for delivery and is estimated to run in the vicinity of $36,000 to $38,000 fully equipped to meet the Underwriter's requirements.

Held Over
All action on the Weed Abatement was held over pending further investigation. All items relative to the Sierra Madre Estates were also held over due to certain matters being under discussion. Civil Defense contract was held over for study and presentation to the Search and Rescue Team, and discussion of the Water District was held over for full council discussion with the Ad Hoc Water Committee.

Inactive Funds
The City having on Deposit $550,000 in inactive funds drawing interest, and with two $50,000 deposits having completed its 6-month maturity period, it was the decision of the Council to reinvest one, and return the other to the funds of the City, leaving $500,000 on deposit in the inactive status of interest bearing.

Other Business
Tract 25748, Petz and Lange was given its final approval and according to agreement was authorized for repayment of $3,209.40 this being the city's share on a 50-50 basis for the installation of the sewer system. Patrolman Ed Francis Riley was appointed to the City Police Force, and Bob Miller was given a fee-exempt permit to paint curb numbers under supervision of the Street Superintendent and by the use of luminous paint. Residence to pay for the service.

Larry Adams was appointed as representative to the Raymond Basin Advisory Board, and the noise of the swimming pool was given thorough discussion.

A three and a quarter legal page agenda was completed in record time and the council adjourned at 10:32 for a short personnel session.

The next regular council meeting will be August 23, at which time the tax rate levy will be set and the budget for 1966-67 will be enacted.

A Brief History of Our Mountains saw a younger unarmed brother shot down in the street.

Owen was with his father in the Harpers Ferry raid. Two of his brothers were killed, his father taken prisoner, convicted of treason and hanged Dec. 2, 1859. This aroused much feeling in both the North and South and inspired the song "John Brown's Body."

Owen and Jason who was hiding nearby were two of seven who escaped from Col. Robert E. Lee's marines and their crossing the country presents a thrilling tale. They traveled at night eating acorns, corn, anything to survive without making a fire, as they were pursued by soldiers and citizens with dogs and guns. A price was set on their heads. Two of the seven ventured into a town to get some food. They were captured proved those of this city disproportionately high. Students attending Wilson Junior High, Marshall Junior High and Pasadena High School all will be affected by the new ruling.

This curtailment of school bus service, though intended for economy, may well have a by-product of increased neighborliness and extended acquaintance among our young people, since it seems likely that parent car pools will result from the new limitations.

Quite a "going abroad" surprise party that was last weekend, held for Gary and Jackie Ewald at the home of Harold and Fern Dapper, 330 Foothill — and not the least part of the surprise was the money tree assembled by guests so this young couple would have extra money for London pub-crawling. Actually the Ewalds' major stop in England will be Southampton, the home of Mrs. Ewald's mother, Mrs. Blanche Hill, who has not yet had a chance to see little Nickie, now 2. After England and a glimpse of Scotland, the Ewalds plan to spend the rest of their two months of vacation on the continent, leaving Nickie to the pampering of his grandmother and hiring a motor scooter to scoot hither and thither through many countries, stopping over at youth hostels. It all sounds fabulous and fun and worth waiting to hear about on their return. Guests at the surprise party included a group of Sierra Madreans, many of them dedicated Little League parents: Jim and Carmen Walters, Don and Alice Bohler, Jerry and Nan Carlton, Bob and Jane Jones, Tom and Jackie Dancy, Jerry and Marion Atkins, Don and Betty Stuart, Herb and Sherry Kaiser.

Owen Brown, son of John Brown the Liberator, and last survivor of the historic raid on Harper's Ferry, Va., died January 8, 1939. He was 64 years, 2 months and four days of age. Over two thousand people attended his funeral, many were notables of the day. He was buried with the white ribbons of the WCTU pinned to his breast and to the music of "John Brown's Body" on a little knoll overlooking Altadena. Among his last words were "It is better to be in a place and suffer wrong, than to do wrong." He was never married.

Staged Rescue

course, to the stars, Heziah, Colbert's bloodhound, and Henrietta, one of the five bloodhounds belonging to Minor Harkness, captain of the team. Everyone involved met at City Hall, drove up to Chantry Flats and on up to the heliport up the fire road near there, at which point the two dogs were suspended in slings from the underside of the helicopter which then dropped them off at a point where Search and Rescue Team members had previous been dropped from the air. Photographers made a third air trip to film the doings from all angles. Ken Anderson had the toughest workout of the two boys, since it was his scent the dogs were set to follow, even over a waterfall. Tom Anderson joined Ken in a climb up a steep ravine. When the dogs got to this they looked up, enabling the rescuers to spot their quarry.

Both boys were among the six who founded the new Junior Mountaineers group, which originally included, additionally, Rick Harness of Monrovia; Rich Kaufman of Pasadena; Ed Anhalt and Keith Davis of Sierra Madre at that time, though Keith has since moved.

Not yet a year old, the group has added three new members, Mat Bates, Arcadia, and Wally Desker and Chris La Lone of Sierra Madre. Junior Mountaineers hope to become members of the Search and Rescue Team some day. Meanwhile, besides having fun hiking together, they are learning mountain skills through instruction sessions from team members and through practical application in their own hiking. They prefer to keep their standards of membership high and ask that members have as a prerequisite a standard course in first aid. Since 13 is the lower age limit they have set, and first aid courses require participants to be 14, the Mountaineers will give a member six months leeway after reaching 14 to complete first aid. New members are given a month's probation, and are not solicited for membership—if you want to join, you must call a number and ask Tom explained that the group realizes the fee of 50 cents a week (with weekly meetings except for summer) is a bit steep, and says it will be lowered soon to accommodate the younger new earners of the group. However, they want to buy 150 feet of climbing rope and already have spent over $40 for equipment.

Owen often expressed the wish to be buried on the top of John Brown's peak and they had planned to build a wagon road to the top, but it was never completed.

Time was running out for the two colorful mountain men. Owen's health was failing. On Monday, December 30, 1888, he worked pretty hard in the morning, then laid down and slept under a bright sun on the banks of the Arroyo. He attended a Gospel Temperance meeting that night, putting all the money he had in the collection box. Tuesday he and Jason were made honorary members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union which greatly pleased them.

Highways to Better Health

At our 1966 meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association in Dallas we were favored by four very prominent speakers — the Food and Drug Administration Commissioner, a U.S. Congressman, the president of the National Health Council and the president of a leading pharmaceutical research laboratory. This was indeed a diverse group, so what did they have in common?

One spoke of medical care of the future; another on pharmaceutical research in changing times; one on government's role in protecting the consumer, and the fourth redefines our free enterprise system — and ALL are for Better Health for ALL Americans.

Commissioner Goddard stated: The last 20 years have produced an amazing array of new drugs — and with them the obligation to make sure that they work for — not against the man, woman or child for which they are prescribed. Max Tishler, prexy of Merck, Sharpe and Dohme agrees with the magnitude of them, and with virtually no disease out of bounds to present day drug research, even though there may be scientific disagreement, (Which is always in the public's interest). Congressman Curtis put it this way: With our desires whetted by this rapid progress we easily become impatient and lose the essence of these wonders and those yet to come. George James, prexy, of NHC stated the alternative in yet another way: We might be able to build a more perfect medical care system if we started all over, but we cannot afford to wipe out all the past.

This was the tenor of our national meeting. In future columns we will enlarge on these important messages for you.

downtown that is still standing from the earthquake. It is all cracked looking. The seafood is wonderful here. After breakfast we drove to Chitina, a ghost town, railroad, to get a plane to fly into Tebay for some fishing. To get any good fishing, one must fly to the location. Tebay Lake is beautiful. It is an alpine lake about three miles long, with a glacier at one end, and snow capped mountains all around. Good fishing too; we got 15 inch trout.

The next day we started for Valdez. We passed Worthington Glacier which is just off the road. It is most impressive. Also passed Horsetail and Bridal Veil falls. The city of Valdez was hurt in the tidal wave and has moved four miles up. People still live in the old city, but no repairs are made and all is quite rundown. The setting is breath-taking, just like Switzerland. It is a little valley surrounded with snow covered mountains. The next day we got onto the Alcan Highway, and it was much better than we figured it would be. We had some rain, and it helped to keep the dust down, although the air-conditioner was a must.

We visited an Indian graveyard, where miniature homes are erected over a grave.

There are so many varieties of wild flowers in bloom, especially the Alaskan Fireweed. It is beautiful, and covers the burn.

Whitehorse Yukon is a lovely city. It is clean, quite a surprise out in the middle of nowhere. The pavement started quite a few miles from Dawson Creek and what a wonderful feeling it was after 1280 miles of gravel road. The Peace River Valley is also quite beautiful. We had a very modern motel here at Fort St. John. We found the lovely Stellako Lodge, located at the end of the 60 mile long Francois Lake. Spent a week fishing and relaxing there. Then on to home. We were gone 32 days in all and we had good weather most of the time.

—JIM and IRENE MILFELD

P.S. — We had to go 50 miles to get to a telephone to call our son Nick, to find we were grandparents, and aunt, while we were on vacation. Our grandson Timmy, Paul Milfeld was born July 20, weighed in at 8 lbs. 2 ozs. and was 20 1/2 in. long. Father Nick and mother Mitzi are doing fine. Aunt Karen is delighted and looking forward to much babysitting.

Hesse Announces Sermon Topic At Faith Lutheran

Under the theme "The Church, the Apple of God's Eye," the Rev. Armin Hesse will present the second of his Sunday morning pulpit messages on the eight nocturnal visions of the Prophet Zechariah in the 10 o'clock Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. Centering attention on the Prophet's third vision, his sermon topic will be "God's Church, A City Without Walls."

on the mission of the church in connection with an elective class period sponsored by the Christian Education Department. Both men come highly qualified to present the message of the Bible to the congregation. All are cordially invited to either service.

The "Life of St. Paul" film series continues into the sixth week at the 9 o'clock Sunday school hour for youth and adults. This outstanding film has been well received by the congregation as a time of inspiration and instruction. This experience is also open to anyone who may wish to attend.

At the Summer Family Service on Wednesday evening, Dr. Schuyler Aijian of Arcadia Methodist Hospital will speak. His interesting insights into the Scriptures have gained attention of the congregation many times as he has presided as moderator at the periodic business meetings of the church. Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of the church, returns with his family from vacation in the east on August 16 in time for ministering on Sunday, August 21.

Dr. J. Addington Newly Appointed

Dr. Jack Ensign Addington, newly appointed pastor of the First Church of Religious Science, 277 N. El Molino Ave., Pasadena, will preach his first sermon there at 11 a.m. this coming Sunday morning, on the topic "The Master Key To the Life Within."

Dr. Addington comes to Pasadena from San Diego where he founded two churches of Religious Science.

Dr. Addington is well known for his radio ministry and for his Home Study Course, the Perfect Power Within You, which is widely circulated throughout the United States and Canada.

A new song, "The Dawn Has Come," written by Dr. David Morton with words from the writings of Ernest Holmes, will be sung by the soloist of the Pasadena Church, Miss Barbara Patton accompanied by Dr. Morton at the piano, on this first Sunday of Dr. Addington's Pasadena pastorate. Both Dr. Morton, the composer, and Miss Patton are on the faculty of UCLA.

Readings from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, will include this explanation: "The Divine Being must be reflected by man—else man is not the image and likeness of the patient, tender, and true, the One 'altogether lovely'; but to understand God is the work of eternity, and demands absolute consecration of thought, energy and desire."

Annual Meeting To Be Reconvened

Rev. David G. Howell Jr. was welcomed by a full congregation last Sunday at Sierra Madre Congregational Church when he preached his first sermon from that church's pulpit. Members and friends of the church had an opportunity to meet their new minister, Rev. Howell, his wife, Rita, and son, John, at a reception given by the Women's Fellowship on Sunday afternoon.

Worship service on Sunday, August 14, at 10 a.m. will be followed by the reconvened annual meeting of the church to take care of unfinished business left open from the meeting in May.

Walter A. Watson On Management Of Your Finances

Walter Addison Watson
"What Wealthy People Know About Money" is the subject of his timely talk on how to organize and manage your own personal master plan for financial security.

"The ideal personal financial program is one which is professionally organized specifically for you. Consideration is given to variable factors, such as differences in capital, income, age, family status, temperament, objectives in life, business cycle, and so forth," Watson says.

Watson, who is sponsored as a community service by California Federal Savings and Loan Association, further says, "Manage your money wisely, and you have a crucial key to mental, emotional, and physical happiness—and to financial peace of mind."

"Personal Financial Management for the Average Family" an informative little book on estate planning and money management, and "Master Plan for Financial Security," a personalized financial fact finder, will be distributed to everyone at the meeting.

Watson's talk will be preceded by a dinner and a brief business meeting. All retired officers, their wives and friends, are invited. For reservations or information call Major Alvin Kaskin, program chairman, 282-6318.

Look for your neighbor in church this Sunday.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madellent Lamphier

Jane and John Buchan, 610 W. Alegria have just had a couple of exceptional weekends, complete with big moon over the desert. With Peggy Howbert they visited Big Bear and Apple Valley. At Apple Valley they enjoyed talking with the Walter Hupfelds, former residents of Sierra Madre, and John helped Walter strip beehives, retrieving some 500 pounds of honey.

Then they saw Anabelle Hupfeld Page and husband Tom, who owns the airport at Big Bear. The children had a big time last weekend with a slumber party for their cousins from San Francisco. However, the whole family was considerably shaken up by the shocking news of the accident which befell Jane's mother, Mrs. Sylvia (Colbert) Peterson on her vacation trip East. As many have already heard, Mrs. Peterson, visiting friends in Memphis, was attacked by a Great Dane, who caught her throat and face, requiring hospitalization and plastic surgery.

Peterson, who went into shock from the frightful experience, had the services of the best plastic surgeon in the South, and has been assured that she will emerge without scars. She also broke her left arm in the fall caused by the attack, so will be staying on a while in Memphis for further convalescence and then continue on to see her son Robert Colbert and family in Connecticut as originally planned. Friends who want to write her can just write to her home address here, 609 Alegria, and Jane will forward it correctly.

Before you complain too much about the unseasonable (so they say!) neat, give pause for thought about our doubtless first Mayor, Charles Jones, who walked down from Alegria for his paper recently, reported that the new baby in the family, his first grandson, is already walking at 9 months and that the family recently made a driving trip around the San Diego area, where his daughter used to live. Mayor Jones, who used to get down there every several weeks hadn't been there for about ten years, and marvelled at all the changes which have taken place, including of course the university complexes still abuilding.

The John Clarkes, 30 W. Alegria divided their vacation time; in May they went to Mexico for a week, accompanied by Sierra Madrans Ted Dammeyer (the III) and family, Kathy, Deborah, and "Tee." Ted Dammeyer and family. More recently they spent several days in the High Sierras, where they visited with the Robert La Lone family, former residents, who are all thriving—and catching lots of fish. On this trip they went with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hogee and their children David and theirs, Cindy, Caroline and Kevin, both families also of Sierra Madre. Robert and Vicki are a little young yet to report any swim or camp activities; they just quietly grow and stay well and happy.

Pat and Donald Colbert, 325 W. Highland, had already returned from a pleasant trip up north around Lodi before word was received of Donald's mother's accident. Betty Jean and Mary Ann had camp time at Pioneer Camp, Sky Meadows, then went to Santa Barbara for a few days visit with their other grandmother, Mrs. Burnett Meeder. Terry is working, and Jacie, too, though she did get in a trip north visiting relatives at Montague and Sacramento. She will be returning in September to PHS for her senior year. Her father has been busy with Hezikiah, one of the Search and Rescue bloodhounds, who lives with them.

The Mike Fraers, now living at 274 Old Ranch Road, came visiting friends here, saw, and were consoled by Sierra Madre and moved here middle of May from Lakewood. They have a daughter Michelle, who'll be going to Sierra Mesa School, and all love it here, natch. Herewith, another welcome mat.

Now the Jerry Zollingers of 411 Crestvale Dr. have a second little boy in the family. Michael Todd was born July 30 at Methodist Hospital, Arcadia, weighed 5 pounds 11 ounces. With Richard Scott not quite a year, their mother should have her hands full with the job of magistrate, making fair decisions, almost as rugged as with twins—but also, likewise, double the department will be checked on need for such U turns.

Everything is now set for the big Chamber-sponsored turkey shoot in Eaton Park and the date has been definitely set for October 31. Fifteen ranges will be set aside, at a cost of $30, and one policeman hired at a cost of $40. With five shots selling for $1 and 15 people able to use a range at one time, it is hoped that substantial funds for Chamber activities will be raised while citizens have fun and tote home turkey prizes. In part, because of the date of the turkey shoot, long planned, the proposal to have a children's show, made at the last meeting, has been vetoed for this year.

A letter from Jerry Asher was read which urged the continuation of the mailing of minutes to board members, but also to include the press and City Council; also a letter from Mrs. Frances King, expressing thanks to all for cooperation on the annual Fourth of July celebration.

In addition to president Delahooke, secretary Dottie Underwood and recording secretary Alyce Herrold, the following members were present: Boggio, Rudbach, Sullivan, Meade, King, Green, Hall, Wightman, Thurston, Johnson, Hurwitt.

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

SYMBOL OF SAFETY

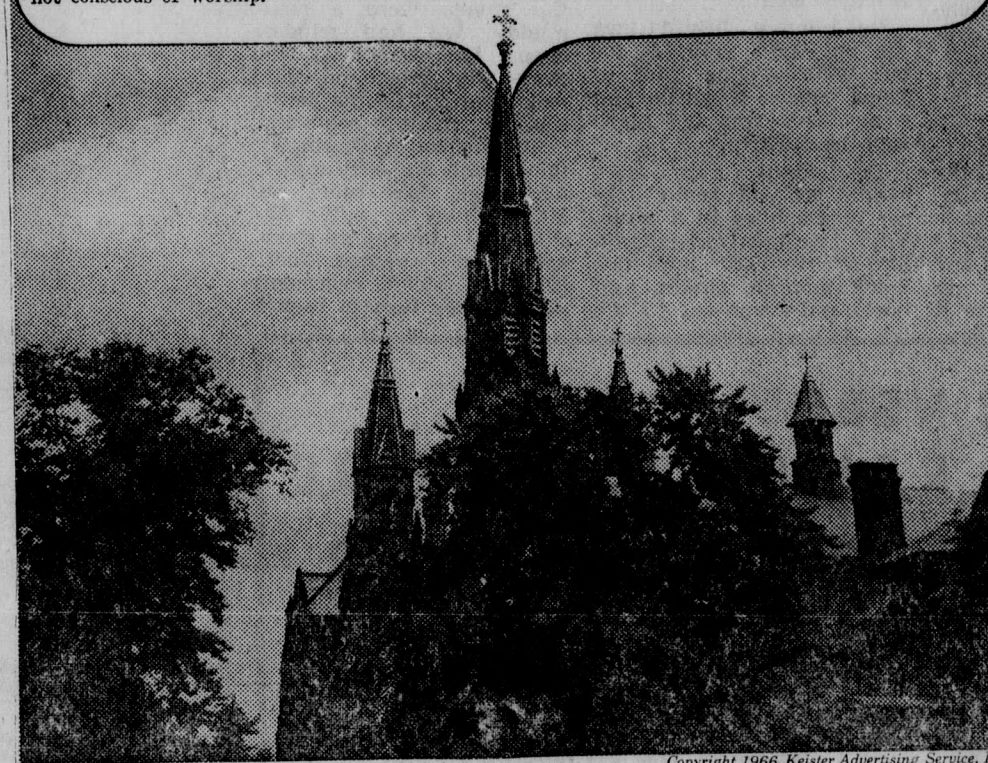

You never mistake the meaning of a Church spire.

Even to those who are cold to the ideals for which the Church stands, that finger of faith always points to something that is comforting, reassuring, safe.

The very presence of a Church, whether in a crowded city street or on a quiet country road, is a benediction to all, including those who are not conscious of worship.

Such an influence, with what it means to those who open their hearts to truth, is worthy of a second thought. It merits acceptance as a refuge. It commands confidence as a port in time of storm.

The Church deserves your support — your membership — because it affords real protection for the family whose welfare it is your duty to defend and whose proper upbringing is your solemn obligation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL — ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Letters To The Editor Of The News... You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madellent Lomphier

Dear Editor:

There has been much concern of property owners as to what they can do because all of their protests have fallen on deaf ears and they are losing their properties through exorbitant and arbitrary taxes.

June of 1966 at the Budget Hearings even the recommendations of the Los Angeles County Grand Jury which were supported by months of a comprehensive study by that group was ignored by the Board of Supervisors.

It was then that some of us spirited minded and dedicated citizens started to lay the ground work to do something about the situation. The re-evaluation of the "assessed" evaluations of property some even as much as 2000 per cent ignited the machinery and we had our "Lift-Off" yesterday, Friday afternoon July 29, 1966.

Now we refuse to pay ANY taxes whatsoever and there will be no money for payrolls even to find out who has refused to pay these insane taxes.

As president of Group No. 5 for the Fifth Supervisorial District and as executive officer of the association we ask that you please print the enclosed press release (Ed's Note: see Page one), as a community service in order that your subscribers and readers may be informed whom to contact to protect their rights and interests.

—HELENE P. PIERRE

Dear Editor:

Here is a copy of the letter I have sent to the State Board of Education and the Curriculum Commission in regards to the history book "Land of the Free."

I wonder if the PTA members and other good citizens have seen this book with so much Communist propaganda in it, and is to be put in our Junior Highs.

I also wonder if these good citizens know THAT YOU AS A GOOD AMERICAN, have this book on display in your office to be seen by all.

12—SIERRA MADRE NEWS Thursday, Aug. 11, 1966

—MRS. ROY DOTY
Calif. State Board of Education
721 Capital Mall
Sacramento, Calif.
Gentlemen:

I, as a taxpayer, with a son going to Junior High — do not want him introduced to Communist propaganda as advocated in the supposed to be history of our "Wandering America." I am speaking of the book labeled "Land of the Free."

There is no way this book can be revised. Any citizen checking it can see this. Propaganda is what it is from cover to cover.

The Reds start taking over any country by inducing the young people to follow them. This has been done in country after country. They are teaching in our universities and colleges. Most of the books selected there are full of Communism and Socialistic teachings. Never do you see any books of our Great Americans who settled this Great Country of ours. Then we wonder why young people are not proud of our country and show more patriotism.

Gentlemen, it lays at your feet. You are the overseers of our children's education. You and you only are the selectors of books and courses to be used in our schools.

So, if you are good and true Americans — show it. Read, discuss and screen all books. Then our children will not be open to Communist propaganda.

This is not only my opinion. All of us parents who love our country and children feel this way.

—MRS. RAY DOTY

Dear Editor:

A newspaper published in a neighboring town is being tossed onto our driveway. First, we do not appreciate receiving "throw aways." Second, the biased news and liberal political stand in this "throw away" make it unwelcome — even in the driveway.

We have asked them to quit leaving this paper on our property. We are also bringing their political stand to the attention of their advertisers. Others might like to do the same.

—THE PASADENA DELAHOOKEES

Dear Editor:

Our Alaska Trip

We left home on July 1, at 5:30 a.m. We had rain in Dunsmuir, and had it all the way in Oregon and Washington. We arrived in Prince Rupert on July 3, got on the ferry on July 4, and were on it 30 hours. The scenery was beautiful with glaciers and snow capped mountains on both sides of us.

As we docked at Wrangell, it was about 11 p.m. and they shot fireworks from the pier, even though it was still light out.

We got off at Juneau, and saw the Mendenhall Glacier. It is a breathtaking sight. Took the ferry the next day to Haines. From there you cross into B.C. and then into the Yukon. We stayed at Dezadeash, and fished. Left the next day, lunched at Haines Junction, and continued on to mile 1202 and stayed at Asas/Kan Lodge.

We had breakfast at Tok, and arrived in Fairbanks about noon. We went sight-seeing that afternoon. Saw a camper with Sierra Madre on the back of it stop for a stop sign at the corner. Wonder who it was and how far they went?

On Monday, July 11, we got up early to leave for our Wein Airline Tour to Point Barrow, Kotzebue and Nome. This was the highlight of our trip.

The flight over was cloudy so you could only see tundra once in a while. When we arrived at Pt. Barrow we got into our hotel, put on parkas and boots and went out to the bus. We had a sample of whale meat; also had a reindeer stew for lunch and that was delicious. We took a dog sled ride, even though there was no snow.

These dogs are not pets, and are not to be petted. Neta Ahupcana, an eskimo demonstrated how to braid sinew (carabro) to sew, and how to skin fur. In the evening we saw the natives dance. The men move most precisely and each dance tells a story. They always wear gloves when dancing, and when they present you with gloves you must arise and dance also. Then they put up a large table and displayed their hand made items for sale.

They had skin masks, fur slippers, eskimo yo-yos, fur-clothed dolls, all sorts of things, beautifully made. Then they had a blanket toss. All the men form a circle around this large skin blanket, and a child jumps in the center, as the men bounce the blanket, and the child tries to land on his feet. Quite a job too.

The next day we flew to Kotzebue, and toured all through there. There is a National Forest there with one pine tree, about 6 feet tall. All the others are only a few inches tall, but a servant man planted this one and it is still there.

At one of the churches, there was a beautiful palor bear skin at the altar. We also saw a demonstration of ivory cutting. In 15 minutes a man carved a seal on an ice-float. It was beautiful.

We went to Nome that afternoon. It was misting when we arrived there and because of the permafrost the streets were a mess, muddy. We had reindeer chops for dinner at the North Star Hotel, and could look right out on the Bering Sea, and the big sea-wall.

We returned on our way to Anchorage. We could see Mt. McKinley for miles. Anchorage is lovely, so clean, with lovely gardens. There is a 14 story apartment — Please turn to Page 6

Small brother Christopher is only a little over two years, but that's old enough to wait with eagerness for a baby brother to come home from the hospital, so the new boy for Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Houser of 347 Sunnyside had a bouncy welcome when he got to Sierra Madre from St. Luke Hospital. His name is Peter John, he was born July 27, weighed a sturdy 8 pounds, 7 ounces and is fortunate in having grandparents near, for his father's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Houser, live in Hollywood, and Mrs. Houser's mother, Mrs. L. Castillo, lives in Oakland.

The Richard Higgins of 273 Ramona Ave. are listed as new residents, yet do not seem so because Mrs. Higgins was Nora Heckman and worked at the Sierra Madre branch of the Bank of America until her recent promotion and transfer to Arcadia branch. She is formerly of Pasadena and her new husband is from Glendora. After their May wedding they took a trip through northern Arizona and upper Colorado and returned by way of southern Utah and of course made a stop at Las Vegas. Then recently Nora's brother, Carl Lambke, visited out here from Plato Center, outside of Chicago. So they're really had a lot happening in rapid succession.

The William Beck with family of 143 E. Sycamore will do their traveling this summer from armchairs, listening to their son, Robert, who with his wife, Karen, just arrived home at last from his service stint of three years with Army engineers in Germany. The young couple spent a month in their journey crosscountry, sightseeing along the way and getting reacquainted with these United States. His parents and brother Tom and sister Bartha had not seen Robert for some two and a half years, so this should be quite a month for them all.

Among the parents who bless the Creative Arts Group are James and Mary Mize of 119 Grand View, whose three girls, Carol, Ann and Laurie, have had a busy summer vacation at home participating in swimming, art, puppetry, creative dance. Guess it will turn out a race whether this town expands most as an increasingly busy village of shops or an increasingly productive art colony; the number of youngsters doing creative work might give the odds to the latter prospect.

Editorially Speaking ..

See 'Eye To Eye'

When the budget first reached the planning stage here in Sierra Madre it was plain to see that everyone was girding for a long battle, not only in the annual battle to fight down any increase in the local property tax rate but there was an apparent wide divergency in the way the problem was to be tackled.

After the initial heat of the battle was cooled down in the first couple of sessions the members settled down to really sweating "blood and tears" with every dollar appropriated, no matter how inconsequential it seemed at the time. It was apparent that under the pressure of the many long hours spent working and reworking the items there was more and more a meeting of the minds as to the necessity of certain items remaining and some being deleted or deferred, hoping for more favorable circumstances in the future or to become a part in long range planning.

The spirit of cooperation has increased with every meeting of the Council as it continued to concentrate on facing the fiscal needs of the City and there were but few items that did not get passed by unanimous consent of the councilmen. There was some slight disagreement on some capital improvements for the Police Department and for the streets department but even these presented no real threat to the wrecking the over-all accomplishments of the group.

All departments took the wacks from the budget axe as it pared down each and every item and it is felt that no frills remain to add unnecessarily to the tax rate. All department heads will manage to get along somehow on the amounts that were appropriated and the city will face the new fiscal year knowing that the essential services will remain intact.

A minimum number of employees have been added, and could possibly provide savings in the cutting down of overtime pay now necessitated in some departments. But one thing we must be cognizant of is the savings to every taxpayer through volunteers on the police reserves and the fire department. It is almost impossible to set a value on this services which are donated to the city day in and day out.

Although the final figure is not known at this writing it is fair to assume that it will be as close to a realistic figure as the combined talent of those concern could produce. It should be remembered that those who set the rate are also taxpayers and anything that is added on the local property taxes has to be shared by them as they too, in every case, are property owners and are not exempt from any taxes paid by the balance of the city residents.

Of course there isn't much consolation in the fact, but any local increase will be minor when compared to the other increases that we will note on the tax bill when we get it with a substantial increase in school taxes, county taxes, and so forth. Some how or other we will all manage to live with them, as we have in the past and hope for the day when someone will come up with a major reform that will alleviate the burden from the property owner. At least this gives us something to look forward to.

One thing we do know for sure, and that everyone involved locally did their very utmost to keep the tax rate as realistic as possible and we should be cognizant of the literally hundreds of hours spent in preparation of the budget to the keep the City solvent for another year.

Attention!

The following is a message from J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI and reprinted from the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin:

In its day-to-day operations, law enforcement deals primarily with one of the most elemental concepts of mankind — the difference between right and wrong. Over the years the citizens of this country, through their representatives in Congress and State legislatures, have written our Nation's concept of this difference into our laws and statutes.

Unfortunately, the concept of right over wrong is not as clear and strong in the hearts and minds of present-day Americans as it was in the hearts and minds of our forefathers. Acts that are wrong, illegal, and immoral are condoned or ignored by much of our society. Many persons have no compunction about committing illegal acts because they feel secure in the knowledge that if detected, they stand an excellent chance of "beating the rap." To their way of thinking, even though guilty, "justice is served" if they can escape punishment through legal loopholes or technicalities.

The increasing number of youthful criminals on our streets leads to the inescapable conclusion that many of our young people are not being taught, by word or example, the simple difference between right and wrong. Permissive parents who pamper their children are in fact failing their children. In many homes, weak alibis and excuses are replacing the teachings of the Ten Commandments, and the Golden Rule is obsolete. Some young people who should be receiving moral training, discipline, and guidance in their homes, schools, and churches instead are left to the guiles of false leaders. The distinction between right and wrong becomes distorted and seemingly unimportant to these impressionable youth.

Our birthright of freedom and liberty would not have been gained had the men of Valley Forge and Bunker Hill let their convictions lie listless in the bottom of their hearts. Neither will these precious rights be preserved unless we do more to uphold Lincoln's strong belief that "right makes might."

All citizens must earnestly rededicate their thoughts and actions to the principles on the Stone Tablets. Let every person, young and old, in his personal, business, and social life, proudly stand for what he believes to be morally right, lawabiding, and honorable. We live in a republic famed for its freedoms, including the freedom of choice. When it comes to choosing between right and wrong, let us be certain we perpetuate this freedom by making the right choice.

This project is a part of the planning of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, who when the plans and specifications are approved, will seek donations to make it a reality. The Chamber has already gone on record of making the purchase of a "dedication plaque," and since we know the stability of our community, and know that, if approved this structure will become a reality, we would like to make our nomination for the dedicated plaque to read as follows:

— CT —
This Building Donated by

in memory of
Harold W. Roberts
Former Councilman and Civic Promoter and husband of Leila M. Roberts, its founder and to

Charles W. Jones
First Mayor of Sierra Madre

— CT —
To us it would be hard to find two more deserving Sierra Madreans to be given the distinction of this dedication.

— CT —
I read with deep concern and remorse the letter of resignation of Jim Gorham from the Parks and Recreation Commission. Our City is losing the services of a "great man" completely dedicated to the charge given him by our people and the Council of the City.

— CT —
In light of the recent attack by members of the City Council on your newspaper, its editor and a former Councilman, and now, according to Jim's letter apparent attacks upon him, I wish to quote a statement from the late Theodore Roosevelt, a quote that evidently is as prevalent today as it was during the time that he made it:

— CT —
"Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to take rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the grey twilight that knows not victory nor defeat." With this I will close the subject, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Sierra Madre Drain Approved

County supervisors have accepted a Sierra Madre storm drain facility for future jurisdiction, operating and maintenance by the Flood Control District, Supervisor Warren M. Dorn said recently.

The action was recommended by District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood following an investigation of the structure by members of his staff. It had been requested by the City of Sierra Madre last October.

Dorn said the project — identified as Sierra Madre Drain No. 005, Sierra Madre-Sierra Woods Drain — includes about 500 feet of reinforced concrete pipe running in Sierra Woods Drive from Grand View Ave.

It will be added to the growing network of flood control and storm drainage facilities protecting the Sierra Madre area during heavy winter storms, the supervisor added.

Ralph and Kay Rule and Nancy are taking their vacation this summer at Balboa, and I guess one of the things they'll be recovering from is disappointment re curtailment of bus service to Wilson, since Kay has worked so hard in PTA interests.

DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Management of this newspaper is not capable of answering questions to this column; however letters to the editor will be published, and answers forthcoming from the writer. Articles are of the writer's opinion and do not necessarily reflect the policy of this newspaper. Who nullified more than two-thirds of the voters of California? Who are the present State Supreme Court Justices and who appointed them?

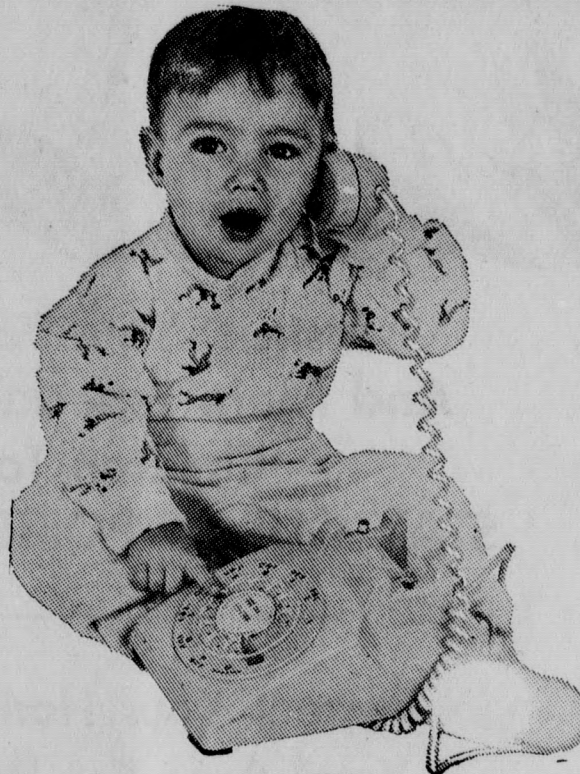

Justice Marshall F. McComb was appointed by Governor Goodwin Knight in 1956, and Justice Roger J. Traynor was appointed by Governor Culbert Olson in 1940, and named by Brown in 1964, as Chief Justice. Governor Brown appointees are: Justices Raymond E. Peters (1959), Mathew O. Tobriner (1962), Paul Peek (1962), Louis J. Burke (1964), and Stanley Mosk (1964).

Just thought you might like to think this over while we are on vacation!

You and Your Neighbors

And it's a boy for the first-born at the household of George and Sharon Fry, 702 W. Alegria. His name is Robert Eugene, he was born July 29 at Methodist Hospital, weighing 6 pounds, 5 ounces, and he is welcomed by a bevy of relatives. Mrs. Fry's mother, Mrs. Eugene Schnell lives here at 188 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., with daughter Cindy, now an aunt at 15, (for boasting at PHS, where she has already begun with the inevitable summer session in biology). Also here, living with the new grandmother, is Mrs. Mabel Carlson, her mother and now a great-grandmother. And the father's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Fry, live in L.A. So, sounds like that little lad is in real danger — of being thoroughly spoiled! (Or maybe of becoming a brilliant achiever, for who gets too much love?)

Questions On Medicare

Persons who have questions about their Medicare cards should contact the local Social Security office. This advice is given by Mrs. Arlene Herring, district manager of Social Security. The address of the local office is 740 E. Washington Blvd. in Pasadena.

Some applicants have re-book but have not received the health insurance card. Such persons should inquire at the Social Security office. Persons who have lost their cards should also report this fact. Finally, those persons whose cards contain errors should contact the office and give the correct information.

Mrs. Herring also explained the "emergency services" provision of the Medicare law. Such services are covered under Medicare even if they are furnished by a hospital which does not participate in the program. This is true, however, only if a participating hospital is not readily accessible for emergency care.

Emergency services are defined as services essential for the preservation of life, or to prevent serious impairment of health. Payment for emergency treatment may be made only for the period in which such care is required. Also, a physician must certify that the services constitute emergency care.

The good word on Sierra Madre can travel quite a distance, though of course a move here is often a case of love at first sight and a speedy return. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leto of 327 N. Lima are new residents from Morton Grove, Ill., here just since the beginning of July. They are cousins of the Genovese family on Baldwin, are exceedingly happy to be here; in turn, welcome from us.

The Richard Bakers, 160 Webster Way, have returned already from their summer vacation, which they took in northern Arizona, accompanied by all three boys—Jeffrey, Jonathan and Eric. Jeff is keeping busy these days playing softball—he's on the Sharks team.

Public Library You and Your Neighbors

Continues Expansion

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphier

Paul Ax, Sierra Madre Public Library, librarian presented his report for fiscal year 1965-66 to the Library Board at its meeting recently.

The report indicates a strong growth in every field of endeavor for the library and shows that the library is indeed widely used by the residents of Sierra Madre.

The library has approximately 30,000 books on its shelves plus a record collection of well over 400, plus a number of framed prints which are available on loan.

The report indicated an impressive gain in total circulation for the year of 4,652 compared to last year, with comparable gains in circulation of records and prints.

Board members point out that since the local library is now a member of the San Gabriel Valley Library System, an almost unlimited selection of books and periodicals is available to borrowers. The libraries in the system are interconnected by teletype and in short order requested volumes, not now available locally, can be located and made available, on loan.

If books can not be located within the Valley system the library is also connected with the State Library system, and they can draw on any one of 50 of the state's largest libraries.

Non-residents pay a flat fee to use the local library, and this, plus fines and other incidentals provide an annual supplemental income of approximately $2,500.

There is a photocopying service available at the library plus displays, which at the present time includes a black widow spider and a live rattlesnake; too numerous to mention.

Women To Meet Aug. 10

"How To Win Elections" is the timely topic to be discussed by Charles F. Goodspeed, at the August 10 meeting of the Arcadia Republican Women's Club. The regular monthly meeting held at the Masonic Temple, 50 W. Duarte Road, will open at 10:15 a.m. with Mrs. R. R. Poppa, president, presiding. Luncheon will be served at noon with reservations being taken by Mrs. Charles W. Lesky, 446-7233.

Mr. Goodspeed, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Republican Central Committee, experienced in the many phases of campaign work, will convey to each member the answer to the question, "What can I do?" He is a master craftsman in the art of politics and his approach to a political problem is always a workable, practical one.

Seems like one should almost apologize for mentioning such a cool sounding word as Alaska during our hot season, but that is after all, where Leonard and Margaret Wilker of 121 S. Lima are now headed, accompanied by their children, Gregory and Leah, who both had their birthdays last week. They are driving up to Prince George, British Columbia, will leave their car there with friends and take the ferry over. It's been a busy summer for the Wilkers, even though Mt. Alverno Guild is quiet during vacation (Mrs. Wilker is a first vice president of the Guild), because the family has had as houseguests since June a couple from Cape Canaveral, who are staying with them until their new house in La Canada is ready. One of the festivities shared with guests was a barbecue dinner in their honor for about 30 people.

Long time residents will be delighted to learn of happy news about a well-loved teacher now retired, Mrs. Claire Bonnell, better known to her former students at both Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa Schools as Claire Newman, was just recently married to Albert R. Waller, a friend of long standing. The new Mrs. Waller, a widow for five years, has been away from here some 11 years, living at her home in Apple Valley, which is where the quiet private ceremony took place. Now the couple will be living at 1615 E. Morada Place in Altadena, if you'd like to add your best wishes to ours.

That should teach young people to welcome vacation trips which involve going back to parents' home towns. When Nancy Turek joined her family for their last summer's revisiting, little did she know she was about to meet her future husband. However, she did! Louis Ezeliga Jr., who was studying metallurgy at the Case School of Technology, for the spring session transferred to UCLA out here, where he has been taking night classes while employed at Douglas. Now Nancy and Louis are planning for an October wedding. So Nancy, who also has been working and taking night classes at PCC, will be too busy with plans to abandon Louis long enough to join the family on this year's trek back to Cleveland to see all the grandparents assorted relatives on both sides of the family. But the four younger members will all go—Mary Lou, Robert (when summer biology ended), Margaret and Jennifer. The younger girls have kept busy swimming at the pool and watching Dodge games while their big brother attended PHS summer school; it's our guess that Mary Lou must have spent some dreamy and wide-eyed hours romanticizing her older sister's plans for marriage. Like, me next?

There was dual purpose in the fine vacation trip to Kansas made by Lela and Louis George Jr. and their family—Laurie, Bonnie and Alan. They went there not only to visit relatives but so that Laurie, recent graduate of PHS, could register for college at Emporia, where she will attend Kansas State Teachers College. They took their camper, had beautiful weather, got to see wheat being harvested, were fortunate in leaving before the shockingly high heat wave hit the mid-west. It will be nice for Laurie to have relatives near when she goes away to school, but viewing the scene sort of brought home to her parents that their daughter will actually be gone, come September 1. Much as younger sister Bon-
